Not just Mac, not just Wings: PizzaExpress launches Mac & Wings nationwide

Thursday 26th February: PizzaExpress, the nation's most iconic pizzeria brand, is bringing a saucy new option to homes across the nation: enter Mac & Wings, a delivery-first mac & cheese and wings brand, rolling out nationwide from Tuesday 3rd March.

The unruly offspring of PizzaExpress, Mac & Wings is louder, hotter & messier and speaks directly to the heart of the UK chicken fan, who is looking for bold & distinct flavours.

Not just another crowd-pleaser, Mac & Wings prides itself on bringing an oven-baked, not fried, chicken offering to fans. Think succulent chicken wings glazed in a sticky Hot Honey, dunked into saucy dips like the fiery Spicy Tomato & Chilli, Garlic Butter and the iconic Pizzanaise[®], which proves it's just as elite on wings as it is on pizza.

Alongside the wings sits a cheesy, crispy and unapologetically melty Three Cheese Mac & Cheese, served Classic or dialled up with Pepperoni and Jalapeño for an extra kick. The line-up is completed with a selection of classic sides from Slaw to crispy Potato Bites plus golden, succulent Buttermilk Chicken Tenders. The loaded offering includes:

- Wings – juicy Lemon & Herb, sticky BBQ, spicy Buffalo dripping in sauce or the sweet/spicy combination of Hot Honey – complete with dips of Garlic & Herb, Pizzanaise[®], Sweet & Smoky BBQ or Spicy Tomato & Chilli (or Garlic Butter for those who like it different – a daring choice, some might say)
- Buttermilk Chicken Tenders with Pizzanaise[®]
- Loaded Mac & Cheese – Classic (with all the cheese), Mushroom, the packed Pepperoni & Jalapeño, and the crammed and crispy Pancetta
- Potato Bites

Proudly born in the UK, Mac & Wings promises punchy flavours and chicken fans can rest assured knowing their dishes are expertly made-to-order by PizzaExpress teams in the brand's industry-leading kitchens.

Paula MacKenzie, PizzaExpress CEO said, "Mac & Wings is us doing chicken our way. It's loaded, it's loud and it's unapologetically bold. Every part of it is built on the same uncompromising quality and taste standards our fans expect from us... just expressed through an innovative new lens."

Mac & Wings will be available nationwide via Deliveroo from 3rd March 2026.
